

Albert "Charlie" Krull

September 20, 1929 - January 23, 2015

Albert "Charlie" Krull, age 85, of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan passed away Friday evening, January 23, 2015 at War Memorial Hospital. Charlie was born on September 20, 1929 in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan to the late Otto and Cecelia (Johndreau) Krull. On November 22, 1947, he was married to Dorothy Jacobs by Pastor J. Elmer Dahlgren in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. Charlie worked for many years on the Carbide dock here in the Soo. He also worked for Sault Tribe Construction. Charlie was a member of the Bay Mills Tribe. He enjoyed watching hockey and baseball games, going to the casino and visiting with his friends: Junior Mckerchie and his long time neighbors: Hulda Moran, Eddie McRorie and Warren and Norma McRorie. Charlie is survived by three daughters: Bernadine Krull, Darlene (Mickey) Bouschor, and Hazel (Larry) Moran all of Sault Ste. Marie, MI; a son: Robert "Charlie Boy" Krull of Sault Ste. Marie, MI; eight grandchildren: Neil Krull, April Bouschor, Mickey Ray Bouschor, Robin Bouschor, Christopher Bouschor, Shelly Shelleby, Albertinia Moran, and Lloyd Campbell; and eleven great grandchildren: Brenden, Trenton, Trevor, Tyler, Tristan, Chelsea, Cali, Sylus, Damien, James, and Shannon. He is also survived by two sisters: Madge "Connie" Schmitt and Grace Solberg both of Sugar Island, MI; a brother: Otto "Abby" Krull of Sugar Island, MI and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife: Dorothy Krull; a son: Roy "Jake" Krull; a great granddaughter: Sheena Bouschor; five sisters: Mildred "Dingy" McKelvie, Ethel "Tweet" Parks, Cecilia Belanger, Loretta Key, and Betty Willis; and five brothers: Floyd Cook, Clayton Cook, Ronald Krull, Bernard Krull, and Roy Krull. According to Charlie's wishes, no public services will be held.