

Alward Spencer Jensen, Jr.

August 5, 1931 - August 16, 2012

Alward (Ward) Spencer Jensen, Jr. age 81, of Kinross, MI passed away Thursday afternoon, August 16, 2012 at War Memorial Hospital. Ward was born on August 5, 1931 in St. Paul Minnesota to the late Alward S. Jensen Sr., and Elma (Hansen) Jensen. He graduated from Murray High School in St. Paul, MN, and then joined the United States Navy during the time of the Korean war. He was married to Joan S. Pautz in October of 1953, and was father to four children. In 1985 he married Sharon Clemence, in Minneapolis, MN. While in the navy Ward worked as an electronics technician, and served three years on the USS Northampton. Later he worked in the printed circuit, and chemical etching industry at various facilities around Minneapolis, MN. He was a part owner of PCM, Inc., and was it's General Manager. Later he established Speedy Printing (now called Heart City Printing) in Elkhart, IN. Ward was a member of the Fraternal Order of Orioles #311. He loved watching ships, reading, watching TV, working in his shed, playing card games and dice, and camping in his motorhome. Ward is survived by wife Sharon Clemence of Kinross, MI, two daughters: Caran (Steve) Mollner of Woodbury, MN, and Julie Jensen of Hugo, MN; two sons, David (Rebecca) Jensen of Isanti, MN, and Thomas (Kirstie) Jensen of Spring Lake Park, MN, stepdaughter Suzan Whitt of Opp, AL; and many grandchildren and several greatgrandchildren. A graveside memorial service will be held at 2:00 PM on Saturday, Sept. 22, 2012 at Mission Hill Cemetary in Brimley, MI. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be left to F.O.O. #311.
