“ Dearest Patrick and Kristina,

We are so sorry for your loss. It's more than any parents should ever have to bear - to lose one child, but to lose two? We are so sad for you. Please reach out if you need anything, we are here for you both. This is what Mike and I would say if we could talk to her now:

Dear Amy,

By the time we met you, you were already an angel on earth. Now you are an angel in heaven. Thank you for showing our family that love, kindness and caring are without bounds. Because Kristina and Pat brought you into our lives, we've all grown so close and learned that family isn't defined by blood nor by ability or capability. It's defined moment to moment, day to day and is living within each of us.

I am not going to lie, I believe that what happened to you is a shame and that you didn't deserve anything but good in your life. Who could hurt a baby? Who could further that hurt on a young child? It's tragedy. Children are so innocent and so defenseless against monsters. Now your battle is over and ultimately, you won. I hope I get to see you again one day. For now, please take care in your sister Elizabeth's company and give her a kiss and hug from us.

Love,

Aunt Hope, Uncle Mike, Cousin Annabelle and Cousin Nicholas

“ Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on, and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone. Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, for as long as there is memory, they'll live on in the heart.
