“ Bob, Marilyn, & Ben,
I am so sorry for your loss. I remember Amy from when we were young and we would hang out at the store in Dafter, play basketball, and sitting in the old announcers box at the ballfield. My mom Marilyn McDonald played softball there for years, so we became good summertime friends. We also went to middle school together. She was always a great girl and fun to be with. I'm glad I was fortunate enough to have known her. Again I am so sorry.
