“ Hi Amy thought I'd take some time for someone who meant so much to so many people and of course animals. It was a pleasure to meet you and know you made a world of difference from the people and animals you encountered. I'm shocked your home to rest and know you will be there to watch over everyone now. You and your family will always be in my life so know they will be okay. Hugs xoxo

“ Sending my love to you all. Amy touched all of us at some point in our life's. I viewed her like an older sister. May she finally be at peace. I hope the three of you can find solace that she is at rest. You are missed by more people then you know Amy. Always in my heart.

“ There is so much I wanted to tell you, to learn from you, learn from each other. But we ran out of tomorrow's. I will speak to you now and then in my thoughts and memories. I hope you're able to hear my words. And if you do, whisper a response. Perhaps we'll meet again in another, more nurturing and gentle life. You were the first soldier, and casualty, in the battlefield that was our childhood. Be at peace now, your burdens are finally at rest. Your brother, Stoni
