“ Mrs. Ausdemore was a lovel lady who also taught me how to sew. Her sticky bun recipe was amazing! Was lucky to always run into her and Mr. Ausdemore when I visited the Soo. A lovely couple. My condolences to the family.

“ I am so saddened to hear about Arlyce's death. I remember her years of cheerleading at Crofton High and the times we reconnected at the High School reunions. I was planning to trip to Michigan and was hoping to see both of you. Jane Hesse

“ Arlyce was my cousin from the Gobel side of the family. Her mom Lilian and my mom Mary (Verletta) were sisters. She was an amazing woman and a true example of Christ's love in action. Our prayers are for her deliverance into the sleep of peace where there is no more sorrow, only rejoicing! May her memory be eternal!
Sincerely, Mark Freemyer and Family

“ Don and Arlyce were the first people my parents became friends with when they moved to the Sault. So many memories of camping trips and Christmas Eves spent together. Arlyce was also the woman who taught me to sew, and instilled my love for it. There's never a project that I do that I don't think of her. Much love to Don and Brian.

My favorite teacher for so many reasons. She taught me to sew, crochet, knit, broomstick lace, and so much more. She was very kind and caring to me. I have always and will always remember her with so much love and I pray for her family and may she rest in peace. I will miss her.

“ I had Mrs Ausdemore as a teacher in middle school. That was 47 years ago, and she always remembered me when we'd run into each other. A very special lady who will be missed. Prayers for her family 💔

“ My sincerest condolences to Mr. Ausdemore (Don) and Brian and her other family and friends. Mrs. Ausdemore was a favorite teacher of mine and a beautiful person. Although I could cook, my sewing skills were horrid and she somehow passed me in Home Econ. She will be surely missed by the Soo community. God received a true angel.

I'm so sorry to hear this sad news of her passing. My heart goes out to her family, friends, coworkers, and anyone that got to have the privilege to know her. She was such a lovely and fun teacher that made Jr. high fun. In my adult life she never failed to stop and say hi if she seen me out and about. Loved waiting on her and her husband in my waitress days. She was always a ray of pure sunshine with the most sweetest smile. Im pretty sure she had angel wings tucked gently under her sweater. My sincere condolences to everyone who will miss her. ❤️
