

Barbara J. Kinghorn

September 9, 1937 - February 17, 2015

Barbara Jean Kinghorn, age 77, of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan passed away Tuesday evening, February 17, 2015 at War Memorial Hospital. Barbara was born on September 9, 1937 in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan to the late Erman and Catherine "Cassie" (Crawford) Jenks. In 1967, she graduated from Sault High through their night school program. Barbara worked for over 25 years at War Memorial Hospital, retiring as a pharmacy aide. She also worked for the Evening News and the Salvation Army. She was a lifelong member of the American Legion Post #3 and a member of the V.F.W Auxiliary Post #3676. Barbara enjoyed crafts in general, but especially ceramics and knitting. She also enjoyed playing BINGO and collecting porcelain dolls. Barbara is survived by four children: David (Colleen) Kinghorn of the Sault Ste. Marie, MI, Margaret (Russell) Green of St. Augustine, FL, Thomas (Mary) Kinghorn of Butte, MT, and Carolyn Ojala of Elko, NV; nine grandchildren: James and Thomas Kinghorn, Brenda Kingsley, Phillip, Christopher, and Heather Ojala, Adam Kinghorn, and Martin and Christina Beckstrom; and six great grandchildren: Matthew Kingsley, Dorothy Jane and Jason Ojala, Danielle and Corriisa Beckstrom, and Casey Ojala. She is also survived by three siblings: Lyle Jenks and Helen Jenks both of Sault Ste. Marie, MI, and Isabel Alexander of Kissimmee, FL; three sisters-in-law: Elizabeth Mitchell of Sault Ste. Marie, MI, Kandy (Wayne) Woodiwiss of Indiana, and Geraldine (Bill) Ball of Brimley, MI; and many nieces, nephews, and dear friends. Barbara was preceded in death by her parents, her husband: Alvin Kinghorn; a sister:

Dorothy Ferguson; a sister-in-law: Ester LaLonde; and her best friend of 58 years: Bette Somes. A memorial service will be held at a later date with interment at Oaklawn Chapel Gardens.
