“ Grandma Barb was such a blessing to our family, and her life touched ours in powerful ways through her love and through her dedication to the Lord. Her children are blessed by her, as are her grandchildren, her great-grandchildren, and generations to come through her. I'm so honored to be her grand-daughter.

*The thoughts and love of my family are with all of you, from Texas.
Love, Jessica, Paul and Evelyn*

Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her:

"Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all."

Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

Proverbs 31: 29-31

“ Dear Steve and Family, Lee and I send our heartfelt and deepest sympathy on the loss of your mom. Although we did not know her personally we saw her with your dad in church every weekend when we were in the Soo. Your parents were a very attractive couple. Steve, the photo you sent us is a beautiful photo and it captures the love and the beauty of your parents and the relationship they had. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Lee and Bev
