“ Always enjoyed sitting with Bea in their tent at Rendezvous . She was a gentle Lady , with a quiet laugh and was always a joy to sit and talk with and at times she had a subtle wit that I remember fondly. I will truly miss her warmth, and know she is with Cotton looking over us all.

“ Bea was such a sweet person. She sewed my my wife’s wedding dress without ever seeing her. Her smile/grin or soft chuckle could light up your day. We saw her at Ralph Jones’ memorial and had a short visit with her. She’ll be missed by all who knew her. She’s with Cotton, smiling now.
