

Bertha Smith

December 5, 1932 - January 31, 2020

Bertha M. Andrews Smith died January 31, 2020 at the home of her daughter Bobbi Hill Root of the Sault. She was born on December 5, 1932.

Bert was the beloved child bride of David P. Smith previously deceased. She had two daughters Bobbi Hill Root and Patricia Smith Newby (Randy) three grandchildren, and 6 great-grandchildren. Two remaining sisters and one brother, many nieces, and nephews, and one very special niece, Glenda Fletcher Logsdon.

In all the places she lived and visited watching the freighters on the St. Mary's River was one of her delights. She enjoyed casinos, and never met a bingo game she didn't like. Mom always decorated for Christmas and made it so special.

Memorials can be made to the Eva Burrell Animal Shelter 6091W US Highway 2 Manistique, MI 49854

“ *I never met you Bertha, I wish I had.
Going by the standards of your daughter Patricia, you must have been one very beautiful and formidable lady.*

*And God was made redundant.
In 1932.*

*For in that year was born a girl.
As beautiful as you*

Sleep well Princess xx
