Betty spent her early childhood in Warren. After Betty was severely injured and her mother and two of her brothers died in a tragic accident, she moved with her remaining family to Pickford in 1985. After a time, Betty and her sister were adopted by Ron and Adella Huyck and she lived with her new family on their farm in Pickford. She graduated from Pickford High School in 1988 and then continued to live with her parents and help operate their farm. She especially enjoyed celebrating holidays, especially Christmas, Easter, and her birthday.

Betty was a member of the New Horizons Church of the Nazarene where she loved to attend the Sunday Worship Services as well as any other activity at the church.

Betty enjoyed doing crafts, watching videos, singing, and collection angels. She had an extensive Christmas card list and looked forward to sending Christmas letters and cards each year. She had a loving heart and enjoyed giving and receiving hugs.

Betty is survived by her parents, Ronald and Adella Huyck of Pickford; aunts, Shirley and Bonita Huyck, both of Pickford; sisters, Charlotte (Gene) Huyck Burlew of Pickford and Ruth (Michael) Southerland of Waterford, Michigan; brother, Eddie Bailey of Madison Heights, Michigan; foster brother, Jordan Kontio of Lake Linden; nephews, Eugene Burlew, Jacob Southerland, and Jason Southerland; and nieces, Amanda (Dakota Swinton) Branecum, Deanna (Ben) Harris, and Becca Southerland. “ Betty was always so full of life and joy. Every time we saw her, she had a bright smile on her face and something to tell us about how good God was to her. She had many lessons to teach us about living in joy. Neil and Sue Harrison
