“ From our family to yours; Please except our condolences as Brandy will be dearly missed. Barb, you must remember when we were both pregnant with our girls and our families thought it would be cute to take a picture of us back to back. We were about the same size. Brandy was born in Oct. and Lisa in Nov. They grew to love eachother. Brandy will be in our hearts forever. Best wishes and call if need be-Jane.

“ Brandy,

I have never witnessed a mom as devoted to her children as you. I know that you stayed on this earth as long as you could for them. You will now be with your Granpa Marvin. Rest in Peace Brandy.

Barb you are one of the strongest women that I know. You have always put your daughter and her children first in your live. You are a good mom and an awesome grandma. Take care Barb
