

Carl "Bruce" Campbell

December 31, 1951 - March 20, 2024

Carl "Bruce" Campbell, age 72, of Melbourn, Florida, died unexpectedly at his home on March 20, 2024. He was born on December 31, 1951, in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, to Carl and Rosemary Campbell.

Bruce was born and raised in Sault Ste. Marie and graduated from Sault High School with the class of 1970. He sailed the Great Lakes after high school and then found an employment as a Corrections Officer at Michigan Correctional Facility in Kinross. He later moved to Melbourn, where he retired from Lowes.

Bruce is survived by his wife of twenty-eight years, Suzanne Clark; daughter, Jessica Campbell of Yakima, Washington; sister, Laura (Ted) Aikens of Sault Ste. Marie; brother, Keith (Donna) Campbell of Marquette, Michigan; grandchildren, Alex (Amaya) Campbell and Elizabeth of Yakima; mother-in-law, Angela Marie "Peg" Clark, brothers-in-law, Joe Clark, and Mike Clark; sister-in-law, Angie Kwiatkowski; grandson, Jaxson Havens of Melbourn; and several nieces, nephew and great nieces and nephews.

Bruce was preceded in death by his sons, Matthew, and Ronald Campbell; parents, Carl and Rosemary Campbell; brother, Dale Campbell; and father-in-law, Robert Clark.

Per Bruce's request, no services will be held at this time.

Family Life Funeral Homes assisted the family with arrangements.
