

Carlton Webb

May 1, 1935 - January 25, 2023

Carlton W. Webb, of St. Ignace, Michigan passed away peacefully on January 25, 2023, surrounded by his loving family.

Carlton was born to Wayne and Dorothy (nee Gordon) Webb on May 1, 1935, in Ypsilanti, MI. A well-educated man, he earned his master's degree at Eastern Michigan University and Northern Arizona State University. While in college he met and married the love of his life, Lenore Coulon in 1960. He taught high school geography and government for many years in Durand, MI and several school districts in Arizona. He also played high school football and coached for many years. Due to his love of football, he was also the live sideline reporter for the radio announcers at the University of Michigan games for over 15 years.

Because of their mutual love of the outdoors and camping, they purchased the Tiki RV Park and campground in the early 1970's.

Carlton was well known for his endearing smile, intellect, and great sense of humor. He was also well known for his story telling and enjoyed visiting with the guests at the campground.

He is survived by his loving wife: Lenore; daughters: Sandra (Oneil) and Cathleen; brother: Mike; and grandchildren: Sydney, Alyah, Farrah, and Mitch. No public services are planned at this time.
