

Carolyn Ann Kuisis

August 20, 1944 - July 14, 2019

Carolyn Ann Kuisis (nee Lynch), 74, of Cedarville, Michigan, formerly of West Mifflin, Pennsylvania and McKinney, Texas, passed away peacefully on Sunday, July 14, 2019 at Cedar Cove Assisted Living in Cedarville. She was born August 20, 1944 in Homestead, Pennsylvania to James Matthew Lynch and Dorothy Katherine Macko.

Carolyn graduated from West Mifflin North High School in 1962. Afterwards she worked as a bookkeeper for Eljer Plumbingware in Pittsburgh, before moving to McKinney, Texas. There she worked as office manager for The World of Outlaws, a car racing circuit based in the south. She retired at 62 and moved to Cedarville, Michigan to be close to her sister, Patti Lynch. Carolyn enjoyed traveling and made trips to Florida, Mexico, and Hawaii ... she always loved the sun and the sandy beaches! She also loved gardening, bird watching, reading, and playing board games. She moved to Cedar Cove Assisted Living in July of 2019 under Hospice Care following major surgery. Her family is forever grateful for the dedicated and kind care she received from McLaren Hospice and the entire staff at Cedar Cove.

Carolyn is survived by her sister, Patricia Lynch of Cedarville, Michigan; aunt, Margo Graham of Wildwood, Florida; many cousins, including Barbara Sedlak, Dolly and Frank Gambino, and Kathryn Olszewski; and special friends, Michael Misko, Beverly Misko, Leeann Landreville, Kim Dunn, Lola

Davis, and Father Zbigniew Grankowski.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her parents; aunts and uncles, Mary and Joseph Olszewski, William and Ann Macko, and Edward and Anne Macko; and cousins, Joel Kleinman and Frank Sedlak.

Per her wishes, Carolyn will be cremated. R. Galer Funeral Home in Pickford, Michigan is serving the family. As her final resting place, Carolyn's ashes will be strewn on the sunny beaches and clear waters of the beautiful Les Cheneaux Islands, Michigan. She is and will forever be loved and missed.
