

Carrie Frances Cameron

August 22, 1959 - January 20, 2019

Carrie Frances Cameron, a Bay Mills Indian Community tribal member, died unexpectedly at her home on Sunday, January 20, 2019. Carrie was born in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan on August 22, 1959 to the late Harold Sr. and Marie (Teeple) Cameron.

Carrie is survived by her children; William “Corky and Elaine Parish, Cori Parish and Maqwanibwit “Bucky” Deuman, and Derek Ackerman; her grandchildren, Malorie, Lily, and Billy Parish, Gavin Burtscher, Charles and Gabrielle Lyons.

She is also survived by brothers; Harold Jr. and Corrine Cameron, Darryl Sr. and Edith Cameron, Arnold “Hawk” and Jessie Cameron, Joel Cameron, Norman and Eileen Cameron; sisters, Penny and Chuck Leapley, Carol and Chris Carrick; and many nieces and nephews.

Carrie is preceded in death by her parents; Harold Sr. and Marie Cameron; her partner and love, John Hanover; brother, Aaron “Bill” Cameron Sr.; sister, Leola Calder; nephews, Aaron “Billy” Cameron Jr., Dennis Cameron, Nicolas Cameron; and niece, Jackie Leapley.

Carrie loved being around people and loved to laugh. She had a long memory and would always share stories about her life. Along with being a story teller,

Carrie was a great pool player and helped her team of six years earn four championships. She liked to frequent the local casinos, where she would greet everyone with a smile. But Carrie found the most joy on the back of a Harley riding either near or far with her beloved John Henry.

Services will be held at the Bay Mills Cultural Center with traditional prayers in the evening on Thursday, January 24th at 7:00 P.M. and a traditional funeral service at 11:00 A.M. on Friday, January 25th, 2019. A potluck luncheon will follow at the Armella Parker Senior Center in Bay Mills.

Clark Bailey Newhouse Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements. Online condolences may be left at www.clarkbaileynewhouse.com.
