

Cassius "Bud" Clay Lowers, Jr.

July 29, 1940 - June 13, 2013

Restaurateur Never Met a Stranger CC 'Bud' Lowers of Hessel, Michigan, passed peacefully from this earth on June 13th, 2013. With a quick-wit and fun sense of humor, Bud never met a stranger. He lived for laughs with family, friends and neighbors. Maybe that's why his entrepreneurial spirit guided him to open four restaurants over four decades - the last being the Hessel Bakery. Bud was always passionate about his community be it serving in the Air Force, working with the Lions Club, as part of the Les Cheneaux Chamber of Commerce and volunteering with the church. He will be missed. Born in Dearborn, Michigan on July 29th, 1940, Bud was the fourth child of Cass and Geraldine Lowers. He is survived by his wife Shirley, three sisters, three sons, one daughter, five grandchildren and one soon-to-be great-grandchild. Memorial service held at Fundamental Baptist Church in Kinross, Michigan, on Saturday, June 15th at 10am.

Tribute Wall

LR

“ I knew Bud when he lived and worked in Tulsa....what a character, always made me laugh. He managed to get me on his Gold Wing...had a ball. Love You Bud 💕💕💕

Linda Reed - December 09, 2021 at 12:00 AM

RS

“ Shirley... we are saddened at this very bad news! Bud always seemed so full of life, and while we not close he did help me on the several occasions that I needed it, with the loan of tools and on a least one occasion some good advice! I am remembering one winter after a snow storm I was late in clearing up the white stuff and his Four-Wheel vehicle arrived at my garage and he inquired if all was well, telling me that "You always keep it neat & Clean, so I thought something was amiss" So, Bud was keeping an eye out for me, just like he did everyone else!... We send our condolences and warm regards..

RB & Bette

Richard & Bette Smith - June 20, 2013 at 12:00 AM