

Christine Lou Lavanway

January 15, 1953 - November 30, 2009

Christine Lou Lavanway, age 56, of Hessel, Michigan passed away Monday, November 30, 2009 at War Memorial Hospital. She was born in Sheboygan, Wisconsin on January 15, 1953. Chris graduated from East Jordan High School. She enjoyed fishing, gardening, and cooking, but most of all Chris enjoyed being mother and grandma to her children and grandchildren. She collected anything that had to do with lighthouses. Chris is survived by her companion: John E. Gee of Hessel, MI; two sons: Brian Lavanway of North Carolina, and Michael Lavanway of Sault Ste. Marie, MI; a daughter: Sue (Randy) Burley of Sault Ste. Marie, MI; two step-daughters: Melissa Gee of Johannesburg, MI, and Tammy Gee of Ferndale, MI; seven grandchildren: Montana, Cody, Stephanie, Hunter, Cory, R.J., and Alleysha. She is also survived by nine siblings and many nieces and nephews. Chris was preceded in death by her mother: Helen Soderquist; and a sister: Diane Soderquist. According to Chris' wishes, cremation has taken place. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

“ Our hearts and prayers are with you all. May God give you His peace and comfort now and in the coming days.
Chris, Randy and Sue were the absolute best neighbors we've had in longer than we can remember.
God Bless!
