“ Chris, you were genuine, as real as they got. You were always in a good mood with a smile on your face. An end here, is a start somewhere else. I know you're in good hands. I'll miss you.

“ My deepest sympathy to Chris' family. Chris was a great friend of my late husband Emery's. He had a heart of gold and was always kind. I would like to think that Emery is meeting him again right now (along with Chris' loved ones) and they will have a great jam session, because in Heaven the music is perfect!
Much peace and love,
