“ Although I did not know Clarence, I am happy to say I have just adopted "Sadie" I just love her. I am a Widowed Senior and I am also a pet sitter on the Island and De Tour. She will be in good and loving hands. I know she misses her Daddy so she will have that time to do so, he must have loved her very much because she is such a good little dog, and gets along very well with my cat "Scout". I just wanted his family to know, she is well and living on Drummond.
