“ I am so very sorry that Randy has passed . We first met at Malcolm School in the 4 th grade & continued our friendship throughout the years . He was such a good person ! He loved his wife & family so much . The last time that my husband , Bud , & I saw him & Sharon was at the Kewadin when we met for coffee . Randy will live on in our memories 💕 Our love & hugs to Sharon & the kids & their families . Heaven has a wonderful new angel 😇 He will be missed by all who knew & loved him .

“ Sincere sympathy to Randy's family and friends.

I regret not getting in touch with you when we were spending Winters in AZ. We grow up, leave the area, go our separate ways but memories last a lifetime

You are a part of my family I have special memories of.

*Rest In Peace, Randy

“ I remember Randy so well and was so sorry to hear of his passing. I am the youngest daughter of Phil Pemberton who was killed working for the Edison in 1967. Randy and my dad were good friends. I have memories of Randy, Sharon and my parents hanging out. Now they will be able to reminisce on old times. Deepest sympathies.
