“ Bruce, Jeannine, Malcolm, Danny and grandkids. In May I talked to Cindy for about an hour. We laughed and cried. I have too many memories to even mention, but I know she was ready to meet God at a moments notice. We talked that we, as a family, were just visiting here, but our real home is in heaven and being with our family.

Cendy always had a good attitude towards life, even through the bad times.

The last I spoke to her she had nothing but good to say about her sister and brothers. She loved them dearly and bragged on and on about her son and his family. She loved and is loved in return.

I've known her for 65 years and I can say that I'm sure she would like to be missed, but her heart would want us all to be happy and live life as if it could end tomorrow.

*Love you, Cindy, and living with the memories that you gave me.
Your cousin, Gayle Rose*

“ We are very sorry to hear of Cindy's passing. She babysat our children a long time ago and really showed what a giving person she was. She even took it upon herself to send a letter from our daughter Abby to Santa and it was published in the evening news. Abby was three at the time and fondly remembers Cindy. She was a great person.

“ Dan, Bruce, Jennie and Malcom and Rocky: Where has the time gone? It seems like only yesterday that we were young and partying and laughing and having so much fun. You are all in my heart and I will be praying for each of you to ask God to give you the strength to remember the wonderful friend, sister and mother Cindy was to each of us. I know it is so hard to believe this is true. She is now celebrating with all those that loved her and left us prior. She will be waiting for each of us with open arms. I wish I were closer so that we could reminisce and cry and hug our loss away. Love to each of you.

“ Dear Cousin Bruce, Jeannine and Malcolm. I am so sorry for your loss. I saw Cindy at Walts funeral and she seemed to be happy and doing well. Cindy was always good for a laugh or a hug, whatever you needed. The McLeod Family will suffer with her loss. Cindy is now with all of the people who will take care of her and welcome her with open arms. May she rest in peace. I will truly miss her smile. Love you guys. Terry & Lynn
