“ DJ,
Feels like just yesterday we were studying for our college exams! Or pulling a all nighter getting our essay reports done! If only I could turn the clock back so you could still be here sharing you light of joy you always blessed people with. Now bud you have to bless us with your presents and keep you family save be there angel. I am truly sorry about DJ passing. I know words can't replace the hole in your hearts. DJ I know we all want to be selfish and say not fair, not right, why, and yeah that's what we all are doing but you must have been needed somewhere else to do greater things bud. You will an are already truly missed! In time we will all catch up with you soon. May you RIP bud.
