

Daniel Warner

April 10, 1947 - July 22, 2019

Daniel "Dan" Edward Warner, age 72, of Kincheloe, Michigan passed away Monday evening, July 22, 2019, at the Hospice of the EUP -Hospice House surrounded by family.

Dan was born on April 10, 1947, in Dearborn, Michigan to the late Donald "Basil" and Margret (Finch) Warner. Dan was one of six children. He graduated from Taylor High School with the class of 1965. On January 28, 1967, he married Sandra Kay Glore. They moved to the UP in 1979 and lived in Pickford for 36 years before moving to Kincheloe. Dan worked as a tool and die maker until his retirement in 2008 from Hoover Precision Products. Many knew him in the last few years as a Walmart Santa. He loved working at Walmart where he assembled bikes. He was always helping his neighbors fixing lawnmowers and bikes. Many people saw him and Sandy riding around on their golf cart, waving to everyone. Dan loved anything to do with trains. He played with model trains and went to train museums. Dan was a member of the North Raber Baptist Church.

Dan is survived by his wife Sandra Warner; two daughters: Amy (Jim) Hammons of Amarillo, TX, and Tracie (Ron) MacDowell of Rudyard, MI; seven grandchildren: James Hammons III, Sharon Hammons, Jessica Hammons, Donna (Christian) Schale, Kayla (Will) Limonez, Evan MacDowell, and Aaron MacDowell; and one great-grandchild: Christian Schale, Jr. Dan is also survived by his siblings: Donna (Mitch Buchanan) Wood of Raber, MI, Marilyn Warner of Texas, Marcia (Gale) Spence of Stalwart, MI, Denise (Ken) Kott of Raber, MI, and Matt Warner of Raber, MI.

A funeral service will be held at 3:00 PM on Monday, July 29, 2019, at C.S. Mulder Funeral Home. Friends may call at the funeral home from 1:00 PM until the time of the service. Burial will be at Raber Cemetery and a luncheon to follow.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be left to help with funeral expenses.
