

Danielle Oakley Beavers

September 11, 1984 - February 25, 2025

Danielle Oakley Beavers, age 40, of Sand Lake, Michigan, died on February 25, 2025. She was born on September 11, 1984, in Grand Rapids, Michigan, to Daniel Beavers and Tami Cain.

Danielle had a passion for working on and building custom cars. She was often found tinkering in the garage, creating and building things with her hands. In addition to her love for cars, Danielle cherished time spent with her family, especially enjoying camping trips on Mackinaw with her children or simply gathering around a bonfire in the backyard. Music was another source of joy in her life; she played guitar and had a deep love for music.

Danielle was also dedicated to helping others and was actively involved in the Raccoon Wildlife Rescue in Montcalm County Michigan.

Danielle is survived by her mother, Tami (Shawn) Cain; children, Cerenity Ann Beavers of Pierson, Michigan, and Avory Lee Beavers of Kent City, Michigan; siblings, Matthew Cain of Sand Lake, and Nicholas Cain.

Danielle was preceded in death by her father, Daniel.

Per Danielle's wishes, there will not be a public service. A private family service will be in the Spring 2025.

Family Life Funeral Homes assisted the family with arrangements.
