

Daphine Viola (Bednarz) Stabile

March 24, 1923 - May 15, 2014

Daphine Viola Stabile of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, passed away Thursday May 15, 2014 at War Memorial Hospital. She was born March 24, 1923 in Alpha, Michigan the daughter of John and Margaret Bednarz. Our mother had a long, full active life. She grew up in Iron Mountain, Michigan and moved to Sault Ste. Marie to work at Camp Lucas as a supply secretary. After meeting a handsome sailor she was transferred to Chicago, Illinois. Absence truly made her heart grow fonder and she returned to Sault Ste. Marie to marry that sailor, our father, John Stabile in 1946. They spent the next 62 years together raising five children and enjoying a large extended family and a multitude of lifelong friends in Little Italy. Mom worked at JoAnn Fabrics, which aided in her love of sewing. She also was the kitchen manager of the Christopher Columbus Hall for many years. She was active in the C.C. Hall Ladies Auxiliary and Hospice. She and Dad traveled often to visit family and friends throughout the United States. In 2005 they took a trip to Italy, but her favorite trips were the Sunday visits to Brimley to spend time with best friends at Fabricino's cabin. She was happiest when surrounded by family and supporting the endeavors of her grandchildren. Daphine is survived by 3 sons John 'Nick' (Laura Giddens) Stabile; Tom (Sally) Stabile and Chris (Jocelyn) Stabile; 2 daughters Gina (Sandy) Badenski and JoLene (Tom) DePlonty.
