

Donald J. Andress

April 22, 2018

Donald J. "Duck" Andress, 83 of Mackinac Island passed away early Sunday morning, April 22 at his home on the Island. He was born on Mackinac Island January 21, 1935 to Joseph and Ruby (Perault) Andress. He went to school on the island, and joined the U.S. Army on February 4, 1958 until July 20, 1960. He operated Donald Andress Construction many years on the island. He was very active in the Lilac Day festivities for many years, and always was in the parade dressed in Native American gear. He rode his horse in the parade. He made Native Art walking sticks, many of which are in museums. Duck was an institution on Mackinac. He was a life member of Sault Tribe Chippewa Indians.

He is survived by a son, Donald Jr. "Jamie" (Stephany Morgan) also of the Island. one brother, Carl and Cora Andress, Hessel; a sister, Mary Christine Andress of St. Ignace; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, and siblings, Barbara Chambers, Joseph Jr. and Leslie "Butch" Andress.

There will be a graveside service at Lilac Day time on Mackinac Island at St. Ann's Cemetery. Cremation has taken place. Services will be conducted by the Mackinac Island American Legion. Dodson Funeral Home assisted the family with arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Donald J. Andress

October 05, 2023 at 09:54 AM

“ Donald J. Andress

October 02, 2023 at 10:14 PM

“ Donald J. Andress

September 01, 2022 at 07:49 PM