“ David was always fair, loyal, and kind to me when I knew him in the 00's. He gave me a lot of opportunities during my high school years and taught me things about furniture, sales, and life in general that I still use today. One of the best bosses I ever had, and a good friend I knew I could turn to and count on even in bad times. I'll miss him and I wish the best for him until we meet again someday. -RM
