

David Patrick McCammond

February 16, 1948 - January 4, 2022

David Patrick McCammond, age 73, of Sault Ste Marie, Michigan passed away January 4, 2022 at War Memorial Hospital. He was born in Oshawa, Ontario on February 16, 1948 to George and Annie McCammond. He married Carol Finner on October 6, 1990.

David was a truck driver for over forty years, driving millions of miles throughout the United States and Ontario, Canada.

David loved to watch his son Rick play and in later years coach hockey. In recent years he enjoyed watching his grandson Evan play hockey and was looking forward to watching the future hockey career of his grandson Hendrix. He was also an avid NASCAR fan.

David is survived by his wife, Carol (Finner) McCammond; his children, Tammy (Richard) Hall of Appleton, Wisconsin, and Rick (Bobbi) Mackie of Sault Ste Marie, Michigan fur babies Miley and Abby, five grandchildren, Shanelle Atkins, Yazmyn Atkins, Paris Hall, Evan Kennedy and Hendrix Mackie, his little buddy. He is also survived by brother-in-law Larry Finner and sisters-in-law Shirley Wright and Connie (Ted) Eby, and several nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents; brothers, Frank McCammond and Jim McCammond; father-in-law, Harold (Speed) Finner; mother-in-law, Helen Finner; and his sister-in-law, Valerie Finner.

Per David's wishes, cremation has taken place and a celebration of life will be held later in the year.

Clark Hovie Galer Funeral Home is assisting the family with the arrangements.

“ So sorry to hear this sad news Carol, i know David will surely miss his calls from “Porky”, his good buddy! Your hubby was always so kind to me and helped make me feel comfortable at the truckers parties where he knew I didn’t really fit in! Always smiling, always do kind. I loved him too snd was happy that he and David had such a special friendship. Hugs to you Carol and I love you too.... 🙏😊❤️

David was one of my most loved friends. Always giving me a ruff and teasing way to go, I will miss him with all my heart. Staying at Carol and David’s house was so heart warming and fun when I would come up, just having David giving me a teasing good time, will miss him, but he will always be in my heart love you two💕

“ Aww my Buddy I'm going to miss your sense of humor and your quick sarcastic remarks that's what I loved about you 😂 We had so many good times over the years (and some not so good) but we laughed about them anyways . May God Speed my friend until we meet again !! Love Suzie
