

Dianne "Granny" Hartman

July 15, 1945 - September 8, 2014

Dianne "Granny" Hartman, age 69, of Kincheloe, Michigan passed away unexpectedly Monday, September 8, 2014 at War Memorial Hospital. Granny was born July 15, 1945 in Lansing, Michigan to the late Raoul and Mary (Dawson) Tremblay. She was a cook at Frank and Jim's, Clyde's, The Malamute Saloon, Frank's Place, and The Pasty Shop. Granny enjoyed a good game of Skip-Bo, watching Tigers baseball, (she was never without her Tigers baseball hat), and following NASCAR (Jeff Gordon was her favorite driver) and she even had a pair of his lug nuts as a souvenir. She loved to relax with her cigarettes and NA beer. She is survived by her daughter: Donna (Thomas) Lutz of Kinross, MI: two grandchildren: Felicia and Dylan Lutz,; and three great grandchildren: Preston, Brandon and Brooklyn. She is also survived by her siblings: Raymond Halme, of Florida, Mike (Barbara) Tremblay of Lansing, MI, Liz (Thomas) Tremblay of Brimley, MI, Carol Miller of Missouri, Bill Tremblay of Lansing, MI, Pat Tremblay of Lansing, MI, and Anna Tremblay of Missouri, and her best friend and companion: Molly (the dog). Granny was preceded in death by her parents, and two brothers: Dave and Raoul Tremblay. A celebration of life will be held at her sister, Liz Tremblay's home at 6932 W. M-28 in Brimley on September 12, 2014 from 4:00 pm to 8:00 pm. Burial will be at a later date at Hillcrest Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be left to help with funeral expenses.
