

Stanley N. Green

May 10, 2012

Stanley N. Green, 71 of Mackinac Island died early Thursday morning, May 10 at Evergreen Living Center. He was born on Mackinac Island on March 6, 1941, one of 15 children born to James "Jay" and Roberta "Bertha" (St. Germain) Green. He was a painting contractor on Mackinac Island all his life. He attended the Indian Dormitory School on Mackinac Island and a short time at Holy Childhood in Harbor Springs. He worked for Joe Plaza, Grand Hotel, Mike Young and many others on the island.

He is survived by brothers, Robert Green, in Florida; Russell "Steve" Green, Wyandotte; sisters, Loretta "Peg" Cowell Mackinac Island; Kathleen Cowell, Wyandotte; Lorna "Pudge" Livernois, Globe, Arizona; Judy and Rick Hespenheide, Palmetto, Florida

According to his wishes cremation has taken place. There will be no services. He was preceded in death by his parents, and siblings, James, Alan, Gerald, Mary Wuest, Patricia Gallagher and Stella Bodwin, and babies, Raymond and a baby girl.

Dodson Funeral Home assisted with arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Stanley N. Green

October 05, 2023 at 09:54 AM

“ Stanley N. Green

October 02, 2023 at 10:14 PM

“ Stanley N. Green

September 01, 2022 at 07:49 PM

“ Condolences the family and friends of Stanley, he was always a big part of our lives growing up on Mackinac Island and will deeply missed. Will definately miss seeing him on the Island and at our family rib roast.

Mary Anne Bazinau - May 16, 2012 at 05:40 AM