Edna was an excellent cook and baker and enjoyed flower and vegetable gardening, canning, and berry picking. In her later years at the Avery Center in Sault Ste. Marie, she spent her days reading her Bible and the local papers, recording in her diary, and watching her favorite TV programs such as The Voice. She also enjoyed her many friends at the noon lunches at the Community Action Senior Center. Edna was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church in Sault Ste. Marie. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.
