At her request these will be no public visitation with family graveside services. She asks only that those who loved her remember her fondly. MISSED ME, BUT LET ME GO When I come to the end of the road, And the sun has set for me, I want no rites in the gloom-filled room, Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little but not too long, Not with your head bowed low, Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me, but let me go. For the journey that we must take and each must go alone, It's part of the Master's Plan A stop on the road to home, When you are lonely and sick at heart, Go to the Friends we know. Laugh at the things we used to do, Miss me, but let me go. The family would like to thank the Everett Eagle for all of the their help during Betty's illness.
