“ Since my mom born in 1916 was also Elizabeth (and it is my middle name), I would give her hugs "as hugs I would give my mom"! We shared a name, a love for our Rosedale Church family, and also love for the Child Evangelism Fellowship program. The children in CEF are the seeds for tomorrow. Elizabeth will always be remembered as a gentle lady with a gentle smile and a gentle voice. Even those of us who are not related will surely miss her on earth. We look forward to our next meeting! Blessings are wished for her family - many of whom are also a special part of the Rosedale Church. ~ Janice

“ Grandma,
You will be missed!!! You were truly one-of-a kind. All of those warm homemade mittens filled with love.. And those cold mornings when we'd come to visit you and you would wrap me up in that warm house coat you had. And I knew everything would be OK. We love and miss you Grandma.
