“ We will keep praying for your peace and comfort, especially as you enter the first holiday season by after the loss of your mom. Even though the world just continues to carry on as though nothing has happened, we know that your heart continues to feel as though it is missing a beat. With sincere sympathy. Jim & Debbie

“ So sorry to hear of my friend Elta's passing. She & Bill were our dear friends for many years when Tom would fly Charlie to Des Moines for hockey. I recently spoke to her when young Bill died. We got caught up a bit. I sure loved her.
