Elvina worked at cleaning cottages and ironing for Clark Township Ambulance while her kids were little and later worked at Patrick's Clothing Store, the Les Cheneaux Historical Museum and then for over 10 years at Arfstrom Pharmacy in Cedarville. On October 16, 1992 Lawrence died. Elvina continued to live in Cedarville and volunteer and help out in the community over the years of her retirement.

Elvina was a member of the First Union Church, and the Law-White VFW Post 7956 Women's Auxiliary.

Elvina loved Cedarville basketball games and Tiger baseball games. She was an excellent cook and hosted many parties for her kids and family. She liked to bake, crochet, play cards, put together jigsaw puzzles, and go for walks. She was above all a loving mother who will be greatly missed by her children and community.
