“ I barely knew Ms. Henderson, which is to say I didn't KNOW her at all. I met her at her workplace on 4 different occasions. I was a consumer, and she, an employee.

A couple years back, I had business in Brimley and Bay Mills. I usually stopped at the BMRC at the end of my day. To make a long story short, I had 4 different problems during 4 different visits. None of which were a big deal. However, it just so happens, Erin was the problem solver on each of those occasions. I'm married, and she showed no personal interests. That said, you can be sure Erin was sincere in only wanting to help. I think of her and a short list of others like her from time to time. She was on my "favorite people" list. Beautiful, sincere, awkwardly funny, and dutiful. That's the Erin I knew.

I wish her peace, and you the family as well. She was a good person, and if I remember her,,,,, you best believe many do.
