“ I fondly remember Skip. She was my mother's cousin and was raised by my grandparents, Gertrude and Albert Bumstead. I learned of her death after this year's Christmas card was returned. Skip was always fun loving and upbeat. My mother and aunts always cherished her.

“ She was the best of friends with my mom, Delpha Johnson, at Avery Square. I want to extend my deepest gratitude to Skip for keeping my mom company during lonely days and even the not so lonely days! :) They always had fun when they were together. She was a most special lady and will never be forgotten. She's busy in heaven now, smiling down, I'm sure.
