

Evelyn G. Wilson

June 17, 1933 - July 26, 2019

Evelyn Grace Wilson, age 86, of Cedarville, Michigan, died July 26, 2019 in Petoskey, Michigan. She was born June 17, 1933, in Grand Ledge, Michigan, to David LeRoy Mayhew and Martha Alma (Lucks) Mayhew.

Evelyn grew up in Charlotte, Michigan, and graduated from Charlotte High School in 1950. In high school, she ran the low hurdles in track. She attended Cleary College in Ypsilanti, Michigan, for two years. After college, she worked at an aluminum extrusion factory and Wolverine Insurance Company, before working as school secretary in Comstock Park, Michigan, and then at Lee High School in Wyoming, Michigan. She married Eugene Wilson in 1967 in Wyoming. In 1989, they made Cedarville their home. Eugene died in 1991. Evelyn then worked at Cedarville elementary school from 1992 until she retired in 1998. During retirement, she continued to work part time at the library in Cedarville.

Evelyn attended St. Stephens Episcopal Church in DeTour Village, Michigan. She was a volunteer at the Les Cheneaux Community Library and a member of the reading group "The Book Bunch". Two or three mornings each week, she would read to her dear friend, Tyler Sherlund, whom she said brightened her life. Evelyn described herself as a voracious reader.

Evelyn is survived by step daughter, Kathleen Wilson of Wyoming; step son, Kelly Wilson; step grandson, Rodney Wilson and family of Indiana; brother, James Allen (Thelma) Mayhew of Charlotte; brother-in-law, Dr. Francis Van Lieshout of Little Chute, Wisconsin; sister-in-law, Nancy Mayhew of Charlotte; twenty-three very dear nieces and nephews and their families; and her dear friend, Tyler Sherlund.

Evelyn was preceded in death by four brothers, George, Macklin, Harold, and Donald Mayhew; and two sisters, Josephine Van Lieshout and Harriet McBride.

There will be no services per Evelyn's request.
