“ Father Landreville celebrated and blessed our wedding at Sacred Heart of Riggsville Nov. 23, 2003. He had a warm and gentle smile that I will always cherish. He truly was a servant of God which is evident from reading his journey to become the dedicated priest he was. May he rest in peace.

“ I have to agree Madonna Buchanan summed it up extremely well in describing Father Landreville! Beyond extremely kind, honorable, humble and truly a priestly gentleman. Father celebrated my mom's funeral mass as this was one of her requests on 12/22/2015 in Cheboygan, MI at Sacred Heart Church where Father celebrated many masses. He was so loved at Sacred Heart. Mom (Millie Podgorski) was the organist at Sacred Heart for many years, Father shared the wonderful friendship they had and when he came to Cheboygan he would always stop by her home to visit and share good conversation. Father had 100% substance as a priest he was one of a kind! I will miss him. I as well had many good conversations with him throughout the years. There is no doubt he is in Heaven celebrating with God the Blessed Mother and all who have gone before him.
