

Bonnie D. Anguilm

December 24, 2016

Bonnie D. Anguilm, 98 of Bellville, formerly of Rexton passed away Christmas eve at St.Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. She was born February 11,1918 in Richland Center, Wisc. Her husband Urban died July 15,1991. She moved to Holiday, Florida in 1979. She was very active in Hospice, and was Volunteer of the year at Pasco Hernando Hospice. She worked as a nurse and caregiver into her 90's in Florida, and drove her car until a couple of years ago. and she was also active in ST.Vincent De Paul in Holiday. A women of great faith, she was active in Bellville the past few years., after moving back to Michigan, very active at St.Anthony Parish . She loved helping people, and that was evident by her long time care giving work.

She is survvied by her sons, Edward and Kay Anguilm, Belleville; Gary and Pam Anguilm, Denver. Colorado; daughter, Carol and Jerry Pasek, Belleville; 15 grandchildren; 16 great grandchildren, and 8 great great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband,a brother, Lester Mc Cauley; 2 sisters, Elaine Murza and Betty Mosher, and her parents, Edward and Olive (Koch) McCauley.

Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Monday, June 19 at 11 am at ST.Gregory Catholic Church in Newberry with Fr. Marty Flynn officiating.. Burial will be in Maplewood Cemetery in Rexton. Dodson Funeral Home, ST.Ignace asisted the family with arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Bonnie D. Anguilm

---

October 05, 2023 at 09:54 AM

“ Bonnie D. Anguilm

---

October 02, 2023 at 10:14 PM

“ Bonnie D. Anguilm

---

September 01, 2022 at 07:49 PM