“ I met Floyd at LSSU when he was a student and I was a clerk in the Registrar's Office. I always looked forward to seeing his face - he was a kind, funny man who loved to tell stories. I remember asking him what he would do with his degree when he graduated from LSSU and he told me he would proudly hang his diploma in his fishing shanty!! I still smile when I think of him - and I'm very sorry to hear he has moved on ... but to a better place.

“ Floyd was an enjoyable coworker. Always ready for a cup of coffee and conversation. He encouraged students to be better than they thought they could be. He will be missed.
