Frank worked hard starting out as a young boy working nights at his father's side before going off to school. He worked at The Soo Theater, Soo Hardware Store and a short stint as city dog catcher. Frank sailed the Great lakes for about two years, at 22 years old he married Marta Sutton also of the Soo and they lived for nine years in Ohio where he learned the plastering trade. Frank and Marta have eight grandchildren and seven step grandchildren and so many nieces and nephews that he truly loved with all of his heart.
