“ Frankie was a good friend to my dad Gary A they did quite a bit of fishing in the upper river especially during the winters when frank would have the inters off . I can think of many good times w him and my dad especially when he was haggling w someone over a price. “ the original art of the deal “ author.frank was always a good guy. Always had a moment for a beer w friends and family. I talked w him about a year or so ago we recounted about the fishing and him moving into Harwood apt. My best to his daughters and grands.

Thank you Fritz. Yes, I remember that he and your dad were great friends. And he certainly was the best haggler ever! It is nice that you were able to speak to my dad recently.

Frank was a great friend with us, he would have dinners with us and him and my husband Denny would watch the hockey games together or he would come over and have ice tea and just visit. He will be greatly missed.
