

Frank Paul Suriano

June 30, 1934 - May 20, 2016

Frank Paul Suriano died Friday morning, May 20th, surrounded by family telling stories of his joyful life. He was a living picture of love with his wife of 58 years Betty Ann (O'Callaghan) his children, Charilyn, Paul, Francine, Mark & John, their spouses Gerard, Karla, & Jennie, grandchildren Michael, Steven, Joseph, Callaghan, Piersan, Tommy, Juliette, Jorja, Jace, & Julian and his faithful dog, Romeo. Frank was a proud Army veteran as well as a member the American Legion, Knights Of Columbus, Elks Club, & the Christopher Columbus Hall. He lost his sight but never his path. He cherished a day on the river, water rocking the boat and his fishing pole in hand. Frank lost his health but not his spirit. Forever a teacher, as he was in Newberry for nearly 30 years, he shared stories & life lessons with everyone gathered at the dining room table, finger waving to make a point. The effect of Frank's love for his family was immeasurable. Even though he's gone from our sight, his legacy of love is as apparent as the sun in the sky. All are welcome to join us for Mass, Tuseday May 24, 2016 at 12 noon at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, to remember & celebrate Frank's amazing life. Donations can be made to Hospice House.

“ Frank was a great teacher and mentor to many of us in the 70's. I recall him rabbit hunting with Charlie Johnson and many of us a time or two. My God Bless you and your Family. Bob and Cheryl Powell
