“ I was Terry's childhood sweetheart at age 13yrs. We met in Howell MI when he spent some time at his grand mother's house. I've tried to keep track of Terry over the years. I'm sorry his life was cut a bit short. Please contact me to tell me about him. Thank you
Barbara

“ *I think back on all of our years,
As memories come, so come the tears.
Tears of happiness, joy, and sorrow,
Always grasping for a better tomorrow.*

*We finally reached those days of laughter and love.
Only to realize God was ready for you to go above.
God needed another angel and he needed one of the best
He knew you were the one for the job and could easily pass the test.*

*Dad, I love you with everything that is in me and all of my heart.
I know that you'll be with me in spirit so that we will never be apart.
Watch over all of us and be there when we need a friend
I'll see you soon and save a place for me, until we meet again.*

“ Speaking for my daughter and Terry's sisters, he could not have been loved more. My condolences go forth to each of you for your loss. Each of you gave your best to him.

To Howard, you were the very best friend that anyone could ask for. You were there to tell him when he was right or wrong and stayed by his side even when he did not take your advice.

Look ahead knowing that because of each you he felt loved and cared for.
