

Genevra Rose Palmer

February 17, 1937 - May 22, 2012

Genevra Rose Palmer, age 75, of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan passed away early Tuesday morning, May 22, 2012 at Northern Michigan Regional Hospital. She was born on February 17, 1937. Remember her smile....her laugh....the brightness of her eyes. Remember her genuine compassion for those who were her friends. I will remember that she was happiest when surrounded by nature and nature's critters. I will remember that we would sit by the by the rivers-edge enjoying the view and our moments together. I will remember that her passion was growing flowers.....most of them were planted with the intent of enticing birds and butterflies to come visiting....nothing would delight her more than to see a "New" bird at the feeder or a hummingbird tasting one of her planted blossoms. I will remember that she was curious and inquisitive....questions came fast when she encountered something unfamiliar. I will remember that her heart-felt beliefs guided her daily living and she was positive that at the end of her worldly journey she would arrive at a joyous place her worldly journey is now over and I truly believe she is where she wants to be.....I will miss her. Husband William. Genevra is survived by seven children, fourteen grandchildren and seven great grandchild. There will be no funeral. A memorial service followed by a scattering of her cremated remains is planned for a later date according to her wishes.

“ Dear Mr. Palmer:

You do not know me, nor I you or your dear wife, but upon reading her "obituary" in the paper, I felt compelled to write to say that it was one of the most beautiful tributes to one's life that I have ever witnessed in written form. You personalized a being and gave her warmth and vitality that standard tributes seldom exude. The "statistics" of one's life are rarely significant and soon forgotten, but your lovely remembrance draws a portrait of a sweet soul whom you loved and admired. It was a joy to read. Blessings to you and your family as you deal with your "missing." SF

“ I am in total shock,just found out.I used to make this ol bird laugh like crazy.She was a hateful thing,in a good way of course,and I loved to aggravate the heck out of her.She always smiled a big smile when I seen her,when she would eventually,finally recognize me.I will miss her.
