

Georgeanna Plont

June 21, 1942 - December 18, 2017

Georgeanna Hartwell Thompson Plont died December 18, 2017, following her yearlong battle with cancer, at her home in Pickford, Michigan. Georgeanna was born to William Henry and Lillian Mae Hartwell on June 21, 1942 in St. Ignace, Michigan.

Georgeanna grew up in St. Ignace and attended school there. After school, she married Paul Mastaw and they started their family. Paul died of diabetes complications when he was only 26 years old. Georgeanna and her three children moved to Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan for several years. She married Howard Thompson in 1963 and they lived in Pickford and raised their eight children. Howard died in 2008. Georgeanna married Michael Plont in 2010 and they continued to live in Pickford.

During her life, when Georeanna wasn't raising her kids, she worked in the woods at logging camps and cleaned cabins at Spring Lodge. She was proud of completing her high school diploma with adult education.

She liked to spend time at the casino and enjoyed gardening and doing things that kept her mind sharp. She especially liked to have all of her family home for holidays and to spend time with her grandkids.

Georgeanna was a member of the Pickford Church of the Nazarene.
