“ So sorry to hear of the family loss. Times like this gives us the urge to rekindle our thoughts. When we as children and families exchanged family visits. I think my imbedded memory of him was when he came to help butcher a cow, and the goat kept trying to interfere. He hit him in the head with a sledge hammer, the goat backed up shook his head, and went his way. Never even dazed him. No one could believe it. He lived many years more, Your dad outdone him by many. Also all the family did for Clint when he lived and visited your area. You will always be remembered. Hold strong knowing he is at total peace.
