“ Our memories of Glenda and our time together always make us smile. As many will write we met Glenda and Dennis as snowbirds in Florida. We so enjoyed sitting at the campsite as a group. Glenda could pull us all into her storytelling with sweet, soft spoken voice and then BANG the punchline would hit and we would all be laughing until our bellies hurt. What a lovely woman who brought so much joy to our group and so many. We will miss her dearly but our memories of time spent together will always be treasured!

“ Oh have I had so much fun with her. I could never remember her name so I called her so many different names. We laughed every time we got together. Very happy we got to spend a little time with her and Dennis glamping. She will always be in our great memory book of life. Condolences to the entire family. Stay strong our good friend. See you soon.

“ Glenda and Dennis were our first friends when we first arrived at Orange Blossom Trail RV Park. Glenda and Linda (my wife) became sewing buddies with Chris Fuller, Desiree Heinz, Linda (Glenda's sister) and Dennis and I quickly became friends even though he is stubborn as he is. Glenda touched many lives and will be missed.

I am so sorry to hear of Glenda's passing. I just happened to see a picture of them both on my "people you may know feed"....and I saw some comments and realized she had passed away. She never let on that she was ill. She was a wonderful quilting friend that I have only known for a couple of years but we connected immediately. She taught me so much more about quilting and we laughed all the time we were together along with her sister Linda. I will miss her so much.
